CONTEXT MATTERS.

YOUR context matters.

Your context matters TO JESUS.

Luke 2:1-7; Psalm 139:7-12

Discussion Guide

ENGAGE

1. Share a moment in your life where it felt like your whole world stood still.
2. Read Luke 2:1-7. In what ways is Luke trying to explain the chaos of this moment? What chaos were Joseph and Mary experiencing? What do you imagine others in Bethlehem were experiencing on that night?
3. How are you experiencing chaos in your life right now? What are you prone to do (good or bad) when your life starts to feel chaotic?
4. Jesus was born into chaos. He entered into moments of chaos his entire ministry. When you pause to reflect on your own chaos, where have you missed Jesus trying to enter into it with you?

APPLY

Jesus steps into chaos and brings peace that makes no sense - it's who he is and what he does. Take 2 minutes right now to sit silently. In that stillness, invite Jesus to speak into your chaos.

- Lord, what are you wanting to say to me right now?
- Lord, what have I missed you saying to me in this already?
- Lord, how do you want me to respond to what you're saying?
