Discussion Guide

ENGAGE

1. Share about a time when your unique experiences prepared you to mentor or help someone else facing a similar circumstance.
2. Read 1 Corinthians 14:1-4, 22-25, and 29-33 (focus on prophecy). What is the purpose of prophecy? What is the benefit of prophecy? Who is prophecy for?
3. Why do you think Paul (the author of 1 Cor.) is creating parameters for prophecy in the church?
4. How do you hope to experience prophecy in your life?

Have you ever heard God's voice to you but for someone else? Share about this experience.

APPLY

Putting together all the tools from this series, create space to listen and hear God's voice (3-10 minutes), take turns and share what you hear with your group. If practicing on your own, record all that you heard

1. LISTENING PRAYER

"Speak Lord, your servant is listening. And if the Enemy is present, go away and be silent in Jesus' name. Amen."

2. GOD SPEAKS

- Words from the Bible
- Impressions through your Feelings
- Pictures through your Imagination
- Word through your Mind
- Voice to your Senses

2. FILTER

- Is it loving?
- Does it build strength?
- Is it encouraging?
- Does it provide comfort?
